

Uruguay Arrests 62 Leftists

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, Oct. 29 (UPI) — Uruguayan officials have announced the dismantling of a new leftist guerrilla group and the arrest of 62 persons.

The government said yesterday that the group, known as "The Party for the Victory of the People," had obtained $10,000,000 in ransom for Argentine executive Frederico Hart.

The group was also said to be responsible for exploding three bombs in the resort of Punta del Este and starting a forest fire Jan. 12.
