

Ex-Priest Dies In Holdup Try

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay — A former Roman Catholic priest, reported to be a member of a terrorist group, has died of wounds suffered in the attempted holdup of a weapons store.

Police identified the guerrilla as Indalecio Olivera Ramos, 34, a former local prelate who abandoned the priesthood three months ago to become a member of the pro-Peking National Liberation Movement.