

3 Tupamaro Women Slain

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay — Three women guerrillas of the Tupamaros terrorist organization were killed and two military officers wounded in a weekend gunfight here, authorities said Monday night.

Informed sources said a police agent also was killed.

A communique read over the national radio and television network said the shootout took place Sunday during a police search through a suburban neighborhood.